CANBY QUEEN—PRIZE WINNING DAHLIA, $10.00 each

Originated by Mrs. Merton G. Ellis. Offered for the first time this year.

This dahlia is of the Peony type only very double and seldom shows the center. It is very large, often 11 inches or more across, but it is not noted chiefly for its size. It stands up well on long strong stems and receives great admiration wherever shown. It is a delicate lavender pink with a fine yellow line through each petal. You can make no mistake in adding this to your Exhibition Dahlia Collection.

IT PAYS TO GROW THE BEST.

Sweepstakes, First for Best Exhibit, First for Best New Origination, — in all, eleven Firsts out of a possible twenty, were won by us at the Northwest Regional Glad Show in 1927. Again in 1927 as in 1926, at the Oregon State Fair we won First for best five varieties, Pride of Portland again being one of the five.
